SYNOPSIS

Four friends are ready to let loose after a long week; what better way to unwind than by going to the first big event of the summer, an underground party being held in Boston's old brewery district. Without a care in the world, Finley, Brooke, Lauren and Jason venture out for a night of fun, blissfully unaware of their fate. They arrive at what they believe is the correct location and venture inside.

The air is still and eerily quiet, at odds with the expected noise and laughter of a party in full swing. Suddenly, a scream pierces the silences and the kids are faced with an unexpected dilemma: do they ignore it and go on their way or do they investigate, potentially helping someone in need?

After heated debate, they venture further into the building to search for the source of the screams. Things begin to quickly spiral out of control as the kids discover the source of the sounds and of their ultimate undoing. The situation becomes increasingly dire and as they bear witness to things they can never un-see, the question is no longer "where's the party", but rather "will I survive the night"?

CHARACTER LIST

CHARACTERS: MAJOR

Finley – A young black man in his mid-20's. Finley was born in Jamaica and immigrated to America at a young age. Before he moved he saw more horrors than most of us will ever see in our entire lives. He does not speak of these things to anyone, not even his closest friends. Finley has had a deep love for music and the dancehall culture as far back as he can remember. He talks with a thick Jamaican accent. One of his best friends is Brooke, whom he harbors feelings for, but has never had the courage to tell her so. Finley usually dresses in urban apparel, including camo and clothes from designers like Ecko.

Brooke – A young woman in her early to mid 20's. Brooke is the type of girl you see at a party that makes you do a double take as she walks by. Vibrant and energetic, always with a smile on her face, Brooke is happy go lucky as they come. She met Finley at an early age and the two have been best friends since. She harbors deep feelings for him but has never let him know, fearing it will destroy their friendship. Brooke has a deep sense of loyalty. Although she is unaware of it, she also has a deep inner strength that will come out when she is thrown into a bad situation. Brooke is a true party girl, and she dresses the part, looking like someone you'd see on MTV, the club or a rave.

(This part requires partial nudity | This part requires major work with animals)

Lauren – A young asian woman in her early to mid 20's. Lauren has had a strict traditional upbringing, and has only recently started going to parties. Even though she is attractive, she is young and somewhat naïve to the evils of the world. She grew up in a nice suburban neighborhood, and met Brooke & Finley through mutual friends. Lauren is easily intimidated, and is very uncomfortable in new situations. She sees Brooke as a big sister, and often looks to her for comfort and advice. When she goes out for a night on the town Lauren wears club wear with an Asian flair.

Jason – A young man in his mid 20's. Jason is the newcomer to the group. He's fairly clean cut and is probably the most "normal" of the four. Even though they've been hanging out for a few years, he still sometimes feels like the odd man out. He's something of a loner, and does not make new friends easily. He has a quick temper, even with his friends, and that has caused some strain in the past. Jason has an interest in sports, especially baseball and football, but hasn't played since High School. Jason usually dresses in casual wear, sometimes wearing baseball jerseys, a cap and jeans.

Thug #1 – A large, strong man in his 20's – 40's. Like many prolific serial killers and psychopaths, Thug #1 fancies himself an intellectual and an artist. He is the mastermind of the gang, and has been doing it for many years. While he'll try to tell you (and convince himself) that the snuff films he makes are for art, his real motivation is money. Genuine snuff films as well as fresh organs fetch a pretty penny on the black market. Not wanting to reveal his true identity, Thug #1 always wears a black ski mask, when appearing in his films. He also has a thing for black leather motorcycle gloves, a leather jacket and large boots.

Thug #2 – A man in his 20's – 40's. Thug #2 is Thug #1's right hand man. He has been his business partner almost since the beginning. He is almost as sadistic and twisted as Thug #1, but has no illusions about why he does what he does. Besides murder, Thug #2 is also hugely into French Ringsport. As such, he brings his highly trained attack dog, Jake, with him almost wherever he goes. Thug #2's dress mimics #1's, with lots of black, gloves and a ski mask.

(This part requires working with animals)

Thug #3 – A slightly overweight man in his 20's – 40's. Thug #3 was the A/V nerd in high school who just happened to fall in with the wrong crowd. Unlike Thugs #1 & #2, Thug #3 absolutely does not command any respect from his peers. Most of his time is spent filming and editing the videos his cohorts perform in. He is somewhat detached from reality, and while he realizes what he's involved in is the epitome of evil, it is overshadowed by his desire for acceptance. Like a loyal dog, Thug #3 is extremely obedient, taking whatever abuse comes his way in stride while trying his hardest to please his "friends". In a different time and place, Thug #3 could have been a genuinely nice guy. Always trying to fit in, Thug #3 wears a ski mask, jacket & gloves.

(This part requires minor work with animals)

Thug #4 – A man in his 20's – 40's. Thug #4 is basically a jerk off artist who took his kinks just a little too far and ended up with this crowd of psychopaths. He's usually cast off to the side, and is given the shit jobs like guarding the door and disposing of bodies, which has given him a bit of a salty streak. He too dresses in a ski mask, gloves & jacket, although he's not quite as cautious as the others about being seen.

(This part requires minor work with animals)

CHARACTERS: MINOR

Female Victim - A young woman, 20's. Dressed for a night on the town.

(This part requires partial nudity)

Mr. Graham - An asian man, late 30's – early 40's. Lauren's Dad, clean cut.

Raver: - A young adult, early – mid 20's. Totally over the top. Colored hair, "Candy" jewelry, neon clothes.

Kids #1, #2 & #3 – Young adults, early 20's. Typical college-type kids.

EXTRAS

Ravers – Young adults. Dressed like you're going to a rave. "Candy", club wear, etc encouraged.
